REPORT AND DISCUSSION

- Director Cool provided a brief background of the classification revisions for Elementary Library Coordinator. He also introduced the specific functions of the classification and described the methodology he used in the review process. Director Cool conducted a basic classification study that included work observations, informal interviews of the incumbents, and desk audits.
- Director Cool received input from several of the elementary principals and the middle and high school librarians in order to obtain a comprehensive perspective of library operations.
- Director Cool made specific adjustments to the minimum education requirements.
- Director Cool stated that language has been added to reflect the Elementary Library Coordinators' role in developing library skills in students and reinforcing classroom learning by providing relevant books and materials in preparation for classroom visits. Duties regarding processes of ordering, cataloging, distributing, and discarding books, textbooks, and other instructional materials were added.
- Commissioner Inatsugu inquired about informational inappropriate content of library materials. Director Cool stated that this concept relates to a cultural and social evolution of the society. Dr. Webb added that the Education Services department, which is in charge of selection and removal of instructional resources, utilizes a committee to make the final decisions.

RULE 12.2.4.B: SALARY ON EMPLOYMENT

A new employee may request or be recommended for Advanced Step Placement within the first sixty (60) working days during the probationary period. If the new employee is granted Advanced Step Placement, the salary rate shall be retroactive to the date of entry in the classification. The request or recommendation shall be submitted, in writing, to the Director of Classified Personnel. The Advanced Step Placement is subject to the recommendation of the Director of Classified Personnel and approval of the Commission. The Director of Classified Personnel shall base the recommendation on a determination that the new employee's previous experience and qualifications substantially exceed the qualifications of the classification.

16.3 Step Advancement

16.3.1 Upon entering employment on Step A, each regular classified unit member, after satisfactory completion of the first six (6) months in a permanent position, shall advance to the next step on the appropriate range of the salary schedule. Thereafter, he/she shall advance one (1) step on the salary schedule upon completion of each year of continuous and satisfactory service until the maximum salary is reached.

16.3.2 Upon entering employment on Step B or higher, each regular classified unit member shall advance to the next step on the appropriate range of the salary schedule after the completion of one (1) year of satisfactory service and in one (1)-year increments thereafter until the maximum salary is reached.

16.3.2.1 The parties agree that there shall be a single classified salary schedule upon which all unit members shall be compensated.

16.3.3 Salary advancement shall be computed only on the first (1st) of each calendar month. When an anniversary date falls on or before the fifteenth (15th) of the month, the increment shall be figured on the first (1st) of the month. When the anniversary date falls after the fifteenth (15th) of the month, the increment shall be figured the first (1st) of the following month.

16.4 Advanced Step Placement:

A unit member may request or be recommended for Advanced Step Placement within the first sixty (60) working days during the probationary period. If the unit member is granted Advanced Step Placement, the salary rate shall be retroactive to the date of entry into the classification.

16.4.1 Unit members being promoted may be offered advanced step placement upon the supervisor's request. This request shall be supported by at least one of the following criteria:

- a. Unit member was originally hired in an entry level classification in which Advanced Step Placement was not offered; and/or
- b. Recruitment difficulty as evidenced by failure to obtain a rank of three (3) through the testing process, or a lack of qualified applicants as determined by the Director of Classified Personnel.

16.5 Salary on Promotion

16.5.1 When a unit member is promoted to a position in a higher salary range, he/she shall receive the next higher dollar amount above his/her present rate of pay, but not less than the minimum of the new salary range. If that amount is less than a one (1) step (5%) increase, the unit member shall be placed at the next higher step over that authorized above.

16.5.2 Some unit members promoted at step A shall advance one (1) step after satisfactory completion of a six (6) month probationary period. Therefore, he/she shall receive regular annual salary increments in accordance with Article 16.3.

16.5.2.1 A unit member promoted at step B or higher, shall advance one (1) step after satisfactory completion of one (1) year of service, which includes a six (6) month probationary period. Thereafter, he/she shall receive regular annual salary increments in accordance with Article 16.3.2.

16.5.3 When it is to the unit member's financial advantage to retain his/her regular anniversary date, it shall be retained. When it is to the unit member's disadvantage to retain his/her anniversary date, the date he/she is promoted to the higher class
