

READING ALOUD

According to the Commission on Reading, "The single most important activity for building the knowledge required for eventual success in reading is reading aloud to children." Children need to hear rich language and enjoy the varied illustrations of books by authors such as Robert McCloskey, William Steig, Dr. Seuss, Bill Peet, Chris Van Allsburg, Kevin Henkes and Patricia Polacco. Help them find answers to their questions by reading some of the wonderful children's nonfiction books. Make sure they are familiar with children's book characters such as Madeline, Arthur, Olivia, George and Martha, Lyle the Crocodile, Corduroy, etc. Introduce your child to the wealth of traditional folk and fairy tales and share the rhythm and rhymes of poetry. Visit your local library or bookstore and ask for more recommendations.

Suggested Summer Reading 2018

Dear Parents,

Summer reading should be fun. These reading lists have been prepared by the librarians of the Santa Monica Public Library in collaboration with the Elementary Library Coordinators and Librarians of the Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District. The lists provide a selection of good books that kids enjoy. Reading levels are suggestions only, as every student learns to read at his or her own speed.

You can help by reading with your child and encouraging his or her own interests. Reading takes lots of practice and encouragement. Set aside 15 to 30 minutes every day for your child to read with you. Have fun with the books and help instill the joy of reading in your child. Some titles are also available as audiobooks so families can enjoy a good book together.

For extra summer fun, visit your local public library for reading programs, many of which offer activities and prizes. Santa Monica Public Library's theme for 2018 is "Reading Takes You Everywhere."

Have a wonderful summer vacation and read, read, read!
